"A Knock Around the Block" by Kimberlee Mendoza, is a fabulous 50's dinner theater.

This blast from the past has all the good clean fun of a '50s sitcom. It's like eating dinner from TV trays and watching a black-and-white set. The neighborhood boys' idyllic afternoon of backyard baseball is interrupted by a couple motorcycle-riding hooligans. Credo's the rhyme and Dune's the reason behind these resident bad boys with their swagger and threats. Then someone smacks Dune with a baseball bat! But who? Come out for a night of a little romance, a bit of humor and a lot of "whodunit."

Tips will be collected for the Youth's Summer Mission Trip
